

Draft June 2010

NISA Conference Draft Program

‘The Future of (Counter-)Intelligence; Threats, Challenges, Opportunities’

27 and 28 May 2011

Netherlands Defence Academy, Rijswijk, the Netherlands

Day 1 – Chair:

Opening Address:

Threats
Plenary Session I	The Future of Terrorism and Conflict
Workshops	I Environment	II Concepts	III Organization	IV Tradecraft
	The ‘securitization’ of global society	Consequences for Civil Liberties	Future threats and organizational implications	Cyber warfare and cyber security -

Challenges
Plenary Session II	The Future of (Counter)-Intelligence
Workshops	I Environment	II Concepts	III Organization	IV Tradecraft
	Globalization and Energy Security	The end of the classical intelligence cycle?	An Intelligence Revolution?	Dependency on a limited number of technology suppliers

Day 2 – Chair:

Opportunities
Plenary Session III	The Future of Security Cooperation

Draft June 2010

Workshops	I Environment	II Concepts	III Organization	IV Tradecraft
	Lisbon as an opportunity?	A shift to human security?	The future of intelligence and security cooperation, cooperation with civilian partners	The impact of technology

Round Table Debate